Description

GHK Hoosier Daddy is a Buck that we had the privilege to own. He initially sold to a friend of ours at the 2012 Cream of the Crop Kiko Sale where he was the High Selling Buck as at 8mos old. When he became available later in his career we were quick to snatch him up. Our friend had sold all of his does and Hoosier Daddy was running with his horses. We had a hard time picking him out in a field full of horses and ponies when we first arrived due to his massive size. His first semen collection took place at a Boer Goat farm where he made full grown boer does that were used as teasers look small.

When he left here he travelled to our friend Yetti's farm in OK and Yetti commented that he was the first Buck he'd ever held that he didn't make look small. He suffered a mountain lion attack during his time there and after being sowed up made a full recovery. He was big, strong and stinky. If you want to add frame size, bone density or muscling his straws are ones you should consider in the Superior Genetics Online Kiko Sale happening Friday & Saturday March 22nd & 23rd, 2024. His pedigree speaks for itself.
